LOCATION

The property is located within the city of Norwich on Ber Street, which is a particular busy route to the retail centre.

John Lewis is further along Ber Street, Enterprise Cars are opposite and there are a number of independent cafes and restaurants within the vicinity.

Norwich's mainline railway station is circa ½ mile away, where there are two services to London Liverpool Street every hour.

The main bus station is within ½ mile of the property.

SUMMARY

Description

Unit B has been home to BMW motorbikes for around 15 years.

The property comprises the right-hand side of the overall property, including the bridge, which is shown in blue on the plan.

It is an attractive steel framed unit with brick walling and glazed frontage. The property traverses the access to the rear parking.

The showroom fronts onto Ber Street and is over ground and first floor.

Unit B has double door customer access into the showroom, which has tiled flooring.

To the rear of the showroom are WCs, changing rooms and stores as well as stair access to the first floor.

The first-floor showroom has vehicular access via a ramp from the rear car park. There are also several stores and WCs
